

Pimaatisin Gaagii Ishi Minigoosiwin

Live life the way it was intended to be

A national wellness and healing gathering for
Survivors and Resolution Health Support Workers

December 15 - 18, 2025

National Centre for
Truth and Reconciliation
UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA

FUTURE
GENERATIONS
FOUNDATION
Honouring Survivors

Canada

Pimaatisin Gaagii Ishi Minigoosiwin

Live Life the Way it was intended to be

The National Centre for Truth and Reconciliation, in partnership with Indigenous Services Canada and the Future Generations Foundation, is honoured to host a national wellness and healing gathering to mark the 10-year anniversary of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's Final Report.

The gathering will welcome residential school Survivors, and cultural and health support workers from the Indian Residential School Resolution Health Support Program (IRS RHSP) to share, reflect and heal.

Conference Dates: December 15 – 18, 2025

(We encourage attendees to arrive on Sunday December 14th to be onsite for Monday's events).

Agenda:

December 15: A welcome dinner and gala honouring Survivors.

December 16-18: Plenary and breakout sessions focusing on mental health, communication, truth and reconciliation, connection, trauma recovery, art therapy, and more.

Location: The Westin Hotel in Ottawa, 11 Colonel By Drive

Criteria to Attend: You must be a Residential School Survivor or a Resolution Health or Cultural Support Worker from an organization funded by Indigenous Services Canada through the Indian Residential School Resolution Health Support Program (IRS RHSP).

RSVP: Please RSVP HERE to tell us whether or not you will attend, and to provide more information to help us book your travel.

Attendance includes travel, accommodation and an honorarium.